

BREAKING THE RULES

Sick and tired of getting older

I keep getting lost trying to find my way

Looking for love in every corner

Night after night

But every street light looks the same

So I'm taking the chance, walking away, breaking the rules

Nobody here can tell me what to do

I'm out on my own, making my way

Trying to be someone that I can be proud of one day

I'm out on my own, doing it my way

I gotta be tough, gotta be stronger

And take the time to understand

This city can't get any colder

Stab you in the back while shaking your hand

So I'm taking the chance, walking away, breaking the rules

Nobody here can tell me what to do

I'm out on my own, making my way

Trying to be someone that I can be proud of one day...
