

LANGUAGE SUPPORT FOR PAIR WORK

What to consider in choosing a wife/husband

- Feelings
- present,
- physical appearance
- money
- social position
- people's opinion
- social class
- opportunities for the future
- real love
- habits
- customs,
- familiarity with partner
- seduction
- fascination
- attraction
- parents' and relatives' advice
- opportunities to climb the social ladder

When talking to your friend consider:

- The ideas and values you want to support in your conversation ⇒ See points above
- The language of the grids you completed
- The use of adverbs made by the novelist to underline, reinforce and express the two different points of view
- The use of repetition and idiomatic use of the language for better persuade your interlocutor
- The level of strength you want to give your opinion
- The objective of your conversation ( do you simply want to express your opinion, make your point of view clear or do you also want to persuade your friend?)

Here below you will find some expressions that may help you better organize the point of view you want to convey, but first of all consider the language you have learnt while processing the extract from Wuthering Heights. It will certainly help you be more effective

Giving your opinion neutrally

"I think..."

"I feel that..."

"In my opinion..."

"As far as I'm concerned..."

"As I see it..."

"In my view..."

"I tend to think that..."

Giving a strong opinion

"I'm absolutely convinced that..."

"I'm sure that..."

"I strongly believe that..."

"I have no doubt that..."

Asking for someone's opinion

"What do you think?"

"What's your view?"

"How do you see the situation?"

"Do you agree?"
