H

At the end I was very proud and satisfied with my deed but I couldn't imagine that such an event could ever happen to me on my way home.

I've always been afraid about theft.

I hate the thought that a person steals my things and violates my privacy.

Although I'd never thought there were theft in my town, at that moment.

It was a cold Friday afternoon.

I had already finished my dance lesson when I returned home. I was walking on my way home when I saw my teen neighbour that arrived in her home. A few second later I peep her and I saw she was seized with fear at her home's door.

I went to her and she told me she thought there were somebody in the house.

Together we opened the door and we wntered to the house with tip toe walking.

Suddenly we've seen a shapes of two men in the living room so I ran silently to their and I hit their on the heads with an ornament.

Then we called police that arrest their.
