My first thought was "Now I have to protect my brother" but he was faster than me and protected me and our pockets.

I didn't felt the beat cause adrenaline , but two hours later my left shoulder and my back were dented.

Luckily my brother is a good boxer otherwise we were taking some punch from the arabians.

However our pants were torned cause the arabians cutted it to find out the pockets.

Now i understand the fear feels in the cities's streets , you are never in security from thieves.

The moment after the accident i couldn't believe my luck and I sighed with relieve.

Thatday i couldn't imagine that such an event could ever happen to me on my way home.

That afternoon of 5 years ago , I was coming home when neighbour's alarm rang.

My heart was beating furiously and I felt in panic , I was out of breath when I saw the thief!

I went off the bycicle and i went to my neighbours house, as white as paper I take a knife , I was so scared but my first thought was "Where is Giovanni?" , I ran upstairs I saw the thief falling down thw window , but he couldn't get out cause others neighbours were at Giovanni's house to catch the criminal.

I went to Giovanni's bedroom and I found him under his bed , he found a nice refuge and from there called the police who's arrived after few minutes.

The thief was arrested and can't stole anything.

Luckily all were fine and my breath start again.
