

CHILD EXPLOITATION

---

Introduction

The term «child labour» refers to work that deprives children of their childhood, their potential and their dignity,

It is harmful to their physical and mental development.

It interferes with their schooling by depriving them of the opportunity to attend school or obliging them to leave school prematurely.

VARIOUS FORMS OF CHILD ABUSE

- Emotional abuse: refers to the psychological and social aspects of child abuse.
- Physical abuse: hitting, slapping, or striking etc. with an object refers to physical abuse.
- Sexual abuse: describes any incident in which a child is coerced into sexual activity by another child or an adult.
- Family violence: family violence usually refers to the physical assault of children and women by male relatives, usually a father and husband/partner.
- Organised sexual abuse: organised sexual abuse refers to the range of circumstances in which multiple children are subject to sexual abuse by multiple perpetrators.
- Armoured abuse: refers to the guns and armour to child for self profit which makes a child terrorist.

RIGHT AGAINST EXPLOITATION

Child Labour violates Article no. 32 of Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC)

It states the child's right

“to be protected from economic exploitation and from performing any work that is likely to be hazardous or to interfere with the child's education, or to be harmful to the child's health or physical, mental, spiritual, moral or social development.”

Apart from this, depending on the type of occupation it may violate the following articles of CRC :

- (i) Article 6 - Right to 'development of a child' to 'maximum extent possible'.
- (ii) Article 18 - Right to protection from all forms of 'maltreatment or exploitation'.
- (iii) Article 24 - Right to proper 'healthcare'.
- (iv) Article 28 - Right to 'education'.
- (v) Article 31 - Right to 'rest and leisure' or to 'engage in play and recreational activities'.

Child labour today: 10 facts

- 1) Worldwide 218 million children between 5 and 17 years are in employment; 152 million are victims of child labour.
- 2) Almost half of them, 73 million, work in hazardous child labour.
