

Portfolio

Teacher Training

My experience with teacher training dates back to distant times and it mainly covers three types of action:

- training for different institutions,
- training for my school colleagues
- training at university.

In the coming section you will be given detailed information about the various experiences I carried out in time.

