You are going to hear a girl called Sophie asking her mother to do five things for her.

What do you think Sophie might ask?

Listen and write Sophie's questions. e.g.: Will you lend me ten pounds?

Listen again and put (YES) if Sophie's mother agrees to do something and (NO) if she doesn't agree.

Transcription (Unit 13 - recording 17)

Mom ?

Yes, Sophie?

Will you lend me 10 pounds

What for?

And, can you lend me your new jacket?

My new one? Yes, and and what can you give me a lift to town?

Now start again! You want to borrow 10 pounds, you want to borrow my new jacket and you want me to give you a lift to town now

Anything else?

Oh, will you get me some shampoo later? You know that nice one ? Well, and can you collect me from the city center at midnight tonight

Right. Shall we go through them one by one?

You can borrow 10 pounds but you already owe me 10 pounds, so you'd better not spend too much you definitely can't borrow my new jacket

Oh, I will give you a lift to town but not till 4 o'clock because I'm busy right now, but I need to go now. You could walk of course or take the bus. You should get more exercise anyway.

You'll go past a shop that sells shampoo.

Then, I haven't got time to do that and you really ought to be more polite. I feel like saying no to everything when you speak to me like that

Okay, sorry I'll wait till you're ready, so would you please give me a lift and could you collect me from the city center at midnight do you think?

Yes, I will but you'd better leave me to finish what I'm doing now or I'll change my mind

Okay then!
