

Homework p.177 (New Inside Grammar)

n.5

A recent report says that life a) is going to change in the next twenty years mostly because of technology. People b) will still live in a similar way: families and single people in houses and flats, although there c) is going to be an increase in communal living arrangements. More people d) will work all or part of the time from home using the Internet. The government has announced that it e) will invest in public transport. The report says that as a result, many people f) won't use cars. The most noticeable changes are entertainment and free time. With much improved home theatre in every home, films g) will be available over the Internet, and most bands and musicians h) will release albums to download.

But most critics think that people i) will never stop meetings in bars and restaurants: a chat on the Internet cannot replace a chat with friends.

Homework p.10, 11 (Students' book)

n.10

She's answering at the third one, that is: "when you were little, did you use to like green vegetables?"

n.11

We can change to used + infinitive these verbs: hated, visited, thought.

n.12

- 4) I failed my Maths exam last Friday.
- 6) Last summer, I broke my leg.
- 7) He didn't play football yesterday.

n.13

- 1) Lucy used to keep a diary.
She didn't use to wear lipstick.
- 2) Lucy used to listen to boy bands.
She didn't use to listen to hip hop.
- 3) Lucy used to be in love with Jim.
She didn't use to go out with Pete.

n.14

Steve: Hello, I'm sure we know each other!

Joe: Yes... of course you're Steve!

Steve: And you're Joe! Wow, you look so different! When did you lose all that weight? You were really fat!

Joe: Er, yeah. I used to eat a lot when I was a kid...

Steve: And you used to have a terrible acne...

Joe: Well, it wasn't that bad. I used to think I was quite good-looking actually!

Steve: And you used to go out with that really ugly girl. What was her name?

Joe: I think you mean Annika...

Steve: That's right. What will she become, I wonder?

Joe: Well, she became my wife, Steve,
Steve: Oh, er...

n.15

Did you use to watch cartoons on TV?
Yes, I did. My favourite one was Pimpa.
Did you use to play a musical instrument at school?
No, I didn't.
Did you use to like green vegetables?
Yes, I did.
Did you use to go to Carnival parties?
Yes, I did.
Did you sleep with your favourite toy?
Yes, I did. I used to sleep with my stuffed animal.
Did you use to be afraid of ghosts and monsters?
Yes, I did.
Did you use to believe in Father Christmas?
Yes, I did.
Did you use to collect football stickers?
No, I didn't.