THE STREET CODE

The problem in the street aren't safety because often when we are in streets , these aren't safe at all but always with mistakes and always car drivers wrong the street code and take risk for accident. Teenagers are worry about problems such as drunk been, drugs been and high speed , indeed we are responsable but others feel like they are "chief world" and make the streets dangerous for all.