

Università della Terza Etá

Sharing English Literature: Reading and Discussion Practice

Collaborative reading, analysis and discussion of content and form of literary texts.

What activities are you expected to do during the lessons?

- Reading, comprehension and analysis of literary texts from: poetry, fiction, drama from different periods with specific focus on contemporary culture and literature.
- The linguistic and literary analysis will be carried out using the specific tools offered by the teacher to promote students' gradual autonomy and the improvement of their communication skills.
- Discussion of the themes connected to the texts analysed and their eventual connection to the present world situations and problems also with reference to music and cinematic products.

- Text selection will be made considering the students' interest and language level.

- Minimum language level required B1