

Portfolio » Teacher Training » At University » Module SALS » Work in Progress » SALS 06 - 07

Session 6 - December 12th 2006

EN

Today's session was totally devoted to group work about the negative aspects of trainees' personal language learning process. Various elements were taken into consideration by the different groups and after that each group reporter presented the results of the shared reflection to peers. Synthesis of all groups' work will be provided in the document linked below.