

October 12th - October 19th. K. Mansfield's Son and Moon

In the extract from K. Mansfield's Son and Moon, the reader can compare the idea children have of the world of adults and viceversa. The comparison is useful to make sense of how the language of literature gives voice to the different perspectives and the gap between children and grown up.

Read more about the short story

Reflection on the idea of childhood and children's imagination as well as on the use of language in the short story is invited. Therefore a workshop meant to promote sharing of ideas will be organized.

Points for Reflection about the extract from extract from Son and Moon Workshops

- Narrative technique Group n. 1
- Narrative technique Group n. 2
- Language Use Group n. 1
- Language Use Group n. 2