“ perché il cuore, ben prima della testa, possa cogliere e apprezzare le molteplici sensazioni scaturenti dall'ascolto dell'album, bisogna soltanto abbandonarsi al trepidante flusso emozionale in esso racchiuso” (onda rock)

Takk glosoli

Glowing Sun (Bright Sun)

Now that you're awake

Everything seems different

I look around

But there's nothing at all

Put on my shoes,

I then find that

She is still in her pyjamas

Then found in a dream

I'm hung by (an) anticlimax

She is with the sun

And it's out here

But where are you...

Go on a journey

And roam the streets

Can't see the way out

And so use the stars

She sits for eternity

And then climbs out

She's the glowing sun

So come out I awake from a nightmare

My heart is beating

Out of control...

I've become so used to this craziness

That it's now compulsory

And here you are...

I'm feeling...

And here you are, Glowing sun...

And here you are, Glowing sun...

And here you are, Glowing sun...

And here you are...
