UTE » Sharing English Literature: Reading and Discussion Practice

Lesson 5 - November 19th, 2024 - Getting familiar with Written on the Body PART II

ORDINARY LANGUAGE

VERSUS

LITERARY LANGUAGE

ORDINARY LANGUAGE

LITERARY LANGUAGE

Most common language form used among the public

Elegant and figurative form of language often used in literature

Used on a daily basis among public

Used only in a literary context

Uses standard syntax

Syntax may vary according to the writer's style and the literary techniques used to enhance the figurative quality

Language enhancers are not much used

Always uses language enhancers like alliteration, rhythm, hyperbole, onomatopoeia etc.

STEP 4

HOMEWORK

Going back to the second part of the extract

Going back to the second part of the extract
What is the overall effect? How is it made up? Which of the elements below play the most important role?
 Sounds Language: semantics and syntax Figures of speech
 Narrator Quotations Other
Who do you think the ideal reader/s is/are?
STEP 5
What is the idea of language it makes? What language does it refer to?
Dead metaphors
Do you want to learn more? Narrators
STEP 6
How does the message open up to possible theme/s?
"Lovers speak, and yet in doing so they are spoken by a language that precedes them, that is not at their disposal, under their control: this language is at the same time dispersed among banalities, poetry, the sacred, tragedy. Language speaks us." (Catherine Belsey, Desire: Love stories in Western Culture, Oxford: Blackwell, p.84)
ROUND UP ON LITERARY DEVICES
Difference between ordinary and literary language
Literary Glossary

Make a list of all that you have not understood in the first 5 lessons a	and bring the list with you during the next lesson.