

Portfolio » Teacher Training » At University » Module SALS

Work in Progress

The section provides materials and products implemented during SSIS laboratory and group work sessions of the Module SALS. The aim is to provide coursisits with the opportunity to reach information and group reflection and negotiate Knowledge construction.

The links of the section are meant to provide the coursisits of the Module Learning Strategies in Foreign Language Learning with a synthesis of the different contributions of group work on problems and themes discussed in a plenary session so that they can be shared.