

Sharing

Media

The section provides materials, files and resources in multimedia modes of communication.

It is meant to provide feedback on a multiplicity of interaction experiences that may range from reading to listening, watching included.

It is a possible way to reflect on the different options and reactions you can have in the continuous interaction with the culture that surrounds us, in our daily experiences and personal response.

