About

Marilena Beltramini was born in Bagnaria Arsa, Udine (Italy). She lived mostly with her family but she used to spend part of the year at her aunt's house where since her early childhood she showed interest in books and spent most of her summertime in the library. Reading and intellectual curiosity have always been the focus of her imultiple interests that are mainly concerned with education and culture.
For further information visit the sections

- Portfolio
- Sharing.
- Events.

View the gallery

A limited range of pictures taken by friends.